

Proclaimers Top the Rough Guides Ultimate Travel Playlist

What will you be listening to on your next road trip, as you embark on your next travel adventure or while you're chilling on the beach this summer?

Rough Guides have the answer with their Ultimate Travel Playlist. We canvassed over 2,500 people who attended Ben and Jerry's Summer Sundae festival on Clapham Common this weekend and asked them to put aside their ice creams to give us their top travel tune.

The results, as below, are available to download as an iMix from iTunes from Tuesday 31 July.

- 1) Proclaimers - 500 miles
- 2) U2 - Beautiful Day
- 3) Queen - Don't Stop Me Now
- 4) Lynyrd Skynyrd - Sweet Home Alabama
- 5) Jack Johnson - Better Together
- 6) The Killers - Mr Brightside
- 7) Bon Jovi – Livin' on a Prayer
- 8) Crowded House - Weather With You
- 9) Counting Crows - Mr Jones
- 10) John Denver or Peter Paul & Mary - Leaving on a jet plane

Rough Guides will be publishing the Rough Guide to Playlists in September and already publish over 300 travel titles, maps and phrasebooks and over 60 reference titles covering subjects ranging from music and film to computing and popular science.
